

Please don't mess with Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I NEVER respond to any telephone solications and I appreciate not having to answer what used to be a three or more UNWANTED calls a day. I am 66 years old and don't want to be bothered by people trying to sell me what I don't need and can't afford.